State Holds Peace Rally

Nation-Wide Demonstration Scheduled By Students For April 22

"War is an imminent threat to the civilization of the world, and there is an increasingly active sentiment in America on the part of individuals in all realms of life to deal with this problem intelligently and effectively," stated Evan Keisler, Secretary of the Emergency Peace Campaign, who plans to speak at the third Annual Peace Assembly, which is to be held on Thursday, April 22nd, at 11 A. M. in the Women's Gym.

This Peace Assembly is a nationwide event at which students can register their sentiment against war. The list of colleges which are participating includes the University of California, Stanford, San Francsco Junior College, and the College of the Pacific.

At the request of the student body representatives of San Francisco Junior College, Jack Werchick, State student, is going to speak at this college's Peace Assembly which they plan to hold on the same day.

Mrs. Bertha Monroe of the Social Science Department will speak on some subject pertaining to world peace, and Miss J. Casebolt, head of the Dramatic Department, with the help of a few of her students, will offer some type of dramatic skit in relation to the maintenance of harmony among nations.

Ed Cockrum, President of the Associated Students, will preside over this Assembly, and Dr. Roberts plans to attend.

Ed. 130 Petitions

Those of you who have not as yet filed an application for admittance into Education 130 or Education 131 should do so at once in the office of the Personnel Secretary (Room 106A, College Hall).

Tickets On Sale Today, 'Row Boat'

The good old advance publicity tug for Cap'n Bud's Row Boat ties up in College Hall today and every school day hereafter until April 30th to sell tickets to the Row Boat performance.

According to Pat MacNamara, chairman of committee on ticket sales, tickets will only be on sale in College Hall between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. Only 500 tickets will be sold. If all tickets are sold before the day of performance, no admissions will be granted the night of April 30th, as fire ordinances prevent crowding Frederic Burk auditorium

PROCEEDS FOR ANNUAL

This show is being given for the publications department and is under the direction of Bud Decker, who is ably assisted by Dawn Wilson, Howard Brubeck and Pat MacNamara.

Proceeds will be used to partially finance the publishing of the Franciscan, the College's annual. Last year for the same occasion the Amateur Nite was given, which benefited the Franciscan over $125, and high hopes are held this year to pass the $150 mark.

GET TICKETS EARLY

Due to the expected high entertainment value of this year's show, everyone contemplating attending should secure a ticket before the end of this week in order to avoid disappointment at the last minute. Price of admission is only thirty-five cents.

The show itself will be divided into a prologue and two acts and will be almost three hours long, with twenty-two solo acts, including A Cappella Choir, Jailbird Quartette, Audrey Stewart, Iva Beth Cain, Helen Louise Cox, Francis Twohig, Rita Sadler, Lorraine Sullivan, and others. The chorus itself will include eight girls and eleven fellows, all colored.

College Theatre Orchestra, under the direction of Carlton Hansen and Howard Brubeck, will furnish the musical accompaniment for the acts.

One of the features of the show will be the awarding of a trophy to the writer of the winning hymn in the recently conducted song contest.

Phi Lambda Chi's Hold Annual Dance

Joe Rosen's Enchanters will be featured at the Phi Lamda Chi Annual Dance to be held next Saturday evening, April 24th, at the Residence Club, 940 Powell Street.

Bids are now available only through members of the sorority, who are selling them at $1.10 per bid. Bids are limited to one hundred, and will be placed on sale in College Hall on Thursday and Friday of this week, providing there are any left.

Religion Class Hears India Talk Tomorrow

Interested students are invited to attend the meeting of the class in Comparative Religion on Tuesday, April 20th, at 2 P. M., at which time Swami Ashokananda will speak on the Vedanta Philosophy of India.

This lecture, given in Annex A, Room 6, is one of a series by outside speakers who are being brought to the class by Dr. Alfred Fisk, in charge of the course. Visitors will be welcomed.

English Meeting Set For Wednesday

On Wednesday, April 21st, the English Department will hold a meeting at 12:30 in Annex B2 to discuss the Subject C examination.

It is necessary to pass this examination before a teaching credential can be obtained.

Mr. Frank Fenton, head of the English Department, announced that to date the results of this examination have been very poor, everyone taking it having failed.

He continued by saying that this meeting is being held to answer all questions of students concerning the content of the examination, and the standards expected.

Prospective teachers are urged to attend.

Registration Sign-Up Ready

All students who intend to serve on the fall Registration Committee are urged to sign up on the bulletin which is posted in the main hall while there is still a good choice of committees. Keep in mind the "C" average which is required of those who serve. The chairman of the Gym Committee is Erile Long, of the Counter and Files Committee is Dorothy Ayling, of the Traffic Committee is Avido Fumigali, of the Distribution Committee is Betty Creon, and of the Information Committee is Dorothy Lavalle, and Poster and Publicity Chairman is Barbara Young.

Camp Leadership Course To Be Given At Mountain Resort

Dan Farmer, head of the new Recreation Course.

Farmer to Instruct in Only Course Given in West

Mr. Daniel Farmer is to be instructor in the summer course in camp direction to be held in Big Basin from June 2 to June 16.

The official title of the course at the WPA camp is to be "Recreational Camp Activities."

It is planned to have the course run for two weeks. However, it is hoped that in succeeding summers a series of two-week courses will be offered.

The training will be open to both men and women at a total cost of $19.00 for the full period: $14.00 takes care of room and board, while the other $5.00 covers the course charge. Enrollment is limited to fifty. Interested students should see Mr. Farmer at once.

Those registering for the course will have the use of the Recreation Hall, Pool, and Kitchen accommodating 150 people.

The field of camp leadership is a new one in education. San Francisco State College will be the only institution of higher learning this side of the city of Chicago to offer this course. It is expected that the course will satisfy the need of supplying trained men and women to direct summer camps.

Two units will be given for the course, compiled of the following subjects: Administration and Organization of Recreation Camps, Archery, First Aid, Swimming, Leathercraft, Nature Study, Campfire programs, Recreational Games, Overnight Hikes, Astronomy and Community Singing.

Only recently, Dr. Alexander C. Roberts received official approval in Sacramento for the administration of the novel summer course.

A. P. G. Holds Hell Day On April 23

"We will see that the pledges will entertain the entire student body at paddle-point," stated Pledge-Captain Bob Chamberlin, when asked concerning plans for the semi-annual Hell Day to be held on the campus April 23rd.

The pledges, Louise Vallerino, Lew Morris, Jim Martin and Roy Laugeson, will wear the traditional newsprint shirts, paper hats and cardboard Alpha Phi Gamma keys, on which it will be necessary for them to get signatures of the members of the fraternity.

Pledges will put on a 45-minute entertainment for the entire student body during the noon hour.

In the evening, a formal pledging ceremony will be held at the home of Ciwa Griffiths, 44 Majestic Avenue.

The Social Swirl

Here we go again, peoples . . . tracking down the members of "sassiety" on the campus . . . and seein' what they're a-doin'. . . . The Sphinxters and the Frenchies dined out . . . Sonia taking her group to the Rex Restaurant Friday night . . . and the linguists motoring to Paly . . . to see Charles Boyer in a French film . . . stopping on the way to dine . . . at a French restaurant . . . where the proprietors didn't know a word of French. . . . Dr. Michell discussess public opinion today for the Sphinx Club . . . is it a safeguard or a menace? . . . Club is planning on April 29th? . . . And remember that absence makes the marks grow rounder . . . I leave you with that thought.

Petition Filing Ends Today; 17 Entered

A total of seventeen students have signified their intentions of competing for favor in the coming student body elections on April 28th. Closing time for submitting petitions has been set for 3 P. M. today. Other entries are expected to swell the total number of names before that hour.

Bud Decker and Will Smith head the list as the two presidential candidates. The vice-presidency has two candidates in Virginia Kyriazi and Dawn Wilson. A list of four names graces the secretaryship, with Kay Bailey, Pauline Quirk, Mary Snell and Edith White running for the office.

The ballot will have three names opposite "Treasurer" when election day comes. George Mirande, Leon Minear and Frank Muldoon are the candidates.

Unlike last year's race for Yell Leader, the competition will be assured when students vote on Hal Delma and Vernon Oulette. Another race different than last year's will be the battle for Director of Publications, with three men fighting for votes instead of one woman unopposed. Bob Barry, Howard Demeke and Billy Rose are the men.

Position on the Publications Board itself has but one aspirant so far, in the person of Bob Chamberlin, but it is generally believed that a list of six or more will supply competition for the place.

Campaigning officially begins tomorrow, when all posters are expected to be up, and ends on election day, Wednesday, April 28th. If a run-off is necessary for any office, it will take place on April 30th.

Free Trip For Best Essay

An all-expense trip to New York City, plus a total of $1,000 in cash prizes, is being offered students in a prize competition for essays on "How Advertising Benefits the Consumer."

The contest is open to all undergraduate students in colleges and universities. It is being sponsored by Advertising Age, The National Newspaper of Advertising, Chicago, for the purpose of inducing college men and women to give more intelligent and careful thought to the functions and value of advertising in the social and economic life of the nation. There is no entry fee, and nothing to buy.

Essays are limited to 1,000 words, and must be mailed before midnight, May 1, 1937, to be eligible. The writer of the best essay will receive $250 in cash, plus an all-expense trip to New York City. Second price is $100, third prize is $50, and ten honorable mentions of $10 will also be awarded. Identical prizes will be awarded in a simliar essay for high school students, which will be judged separately.

Essays will be judged by a group of prominent individuals representing consumer and educational interests, and including Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, President, General Federation of Women's Clubs, and Prof. Herbert W. Hess, professor of merchandising at the University of Pennsylvania.

Complete details of the competition may be secured from the Contest Secretary, 100 E. Ohio Street, Chicago.

Cheeze It, 'da Cops!

By Tom Thorpe

It's been a long time since we've heard that familiar phrase, "Cheeze it, da cops!" Why? Just this: With the advent of radio into the life of the police departments in the United States one would not have a chance to complete that sentence—you would get as far as "Cheeze it" and "da cops" would be there.

The San Francisco Police Department has at its command, through the medium of radio, four cars in each of the fifteen districts; seven motorcycles; twenty-five plainclothesmen in cars, and ambulances from the Department of Health, all radio equipped and capable of receiving calls from the Hall of Justice. Approximately thirty seconds after a call has come through for a squad car, that car is on its way to the scene of the crime!

If you want a policeman, phone Sutter 2020. An officer will answer, and you explain your difficulty. If he thinks that your reason warrants the immediate sending of a car, he gets your address and reason and gives it to another policeman, who sends it through a two-way radio set to a sound-proof room, where it is broadcast to the squad car that is in your vicinity. If a person's reason for wanting an officer is not urgent, the car is sent out at a more convenient time, but that person can rest assured that it will get there.

According to Frank Latulip, famous criminologist in San Francisco, the communication system of the San Francisco Police Department is the most complete set-up in the world. He bases this statement on survey made in 1936 of stations throughout the United States at J. Edgar Hoover's request.

For the benefit of those who have short wave radios, the call letter for the San Francisco Police Department is KGPD and all messages sent out to cars are in code, which is changed from time to time. The police call sent out tells this: (1) What car is to go there, (2) where it's to go, (3) the nature of the crime (in code), (4) KGPD, S. F. P. D. and (5) the time the call is issued. That is all.

Dear Mr. Thorpe:

We have read your "City Sidelights" twice and find no cause for such a dissertation as rendered by a certain A. B. graduate in last column. We appreciate your efforts to broaden our everyday knowledge. The library has facilities for rare selections of poetry. We are looking forward to some more of your interesting articles.

Chamberlin's Tripe

By Bob Chamberlin

Guess we'll print a letter we got from a musician . . . who wonders . . .

"Chamberlin: There is a music major, initials are I. F., who will not accept dates from fellows around school. What's wrong? Is she married, engaged, going steady, or WHAT?

"Hart Uppe."

Well, mister, reckon the gal you mean is Ida Fertig, stellar bass player . . . but as to her idiosyncrasies . . . you got me!

We are of the opinion that we have left the faculty too much out of this column . . . because we know they'd resent any oversight, here we go . . .

And now for a few oddities and idiosyncracies that we've remarked among our erudite faculty. We'll toss together quotes as follows:

Anna Verona Dorris says "D'ja see, clawse, d'ja see?", to which Madame Marie Dony might well reply "Eh, bien, eh bein, maintenant nous aurons . . ." Maestro Knuth must needs be quoted as saying, "Naow, people . . . naow people, when you get out in the field . ."

At this point, Ceiling-hypnotizer Cassady, would frantically scribble on a half-dozen black-boards and then mumble as he gazed out the window.

Perhaps Hilda Holmes could tell us about "Well, when I was a girl in England . . . "

A further composite would look something like this . . . Frank Fenton could stuff his pockets full of hands and listen to Clara Crumpton encourage the lasses with . . . "A job for everyone, just around the corner." or "A place for everyone . . . just find the place." Then we could shift the scene to one of Thespian-maker Casebolt's classes . . . all the members holding their noses, and Carola declaiming "I live foah thuh theeahtuh". To use Miss Jessie's favorite word, 'twould be mere rationalization.

CINDERMEN TAKE ON CAL. AGGIES TOMORROW

GATER SPORTS

GATER NINE DOWNS MENLO J. C. AT ROBERT'S FIELD

Thinclads Meet Cal. Aggies Tomorrow At Kezar At 3 P. M.

Hopkins, Shreeve, and Crary To Get Acid Test From Aggies

Those awful tough men from up Davis way will be in town tomorrow to take on our Gater track team. They'll be given warm welcome by the proteges of Coach Dave Cox when they entrain for the Kezar cinder path with no hold barred.

HOPKIN STHREATENED

But robust "Hoppy" Hopkins, the Adonis of the State thin clads, is ably filling the "Finn's" shoes. Running both the high and low hurdles in decent time, Hopkins should cop those events. However, he meets his toughest opponent to date in lanky Frick of the Aggies. Frick's best time in the high timbers is 16.1. Hopkin's best time is 15.9. "Hoppy" has covered the low hurdle distance in 25.6, and Frick has done a 25.7. In his other events of the day, the broad jump and the high jump, the Gater three-year-old looks like a winner.

EBERT LEADS FIELD

Steve Ebert will lead the Gater weight men, who are even yet an unknown quantity. Ebert has improved considerably since last year and has been tossing the platter to a creditable distance. Dick Hurst may compete in the javelin and Al Thompson is listed as a probable starter in the discus.

SHREEVE RUNS TWO-MILE

Diminutive, dogged "Biff" Shreeve will have his first chance to run his favorite event at Kezar, the two-mile grind. The Fortune Flash has been threatening to turn in a mark lower than 9.55 and this may be his day. Stan Kuder meets some plenty rugged competition when he goes in against Ralph Troop in the 880, who has been flirting around 2.02 all season.

CRARY VAULTS AGAIN

Doug Crary, the boy without a chance, will give State a big advantage in the pole vault. Crary, whom Cox points to as an example of what practice will do, is the lone Gater prospect in this event. Young Errol Evans, the century speedster, has a duel on his hands when he tangles with Floyd Millsap, former Sacramento J. C. sprint star.

It looks like a toss-up. "You pays your money and takes your choice."

Highlights Given For Steve Ebert; 4th Year of Track

When looking over the track stories which have recently found their way into the sport pages of the Golden Gater, we find that the general trend of thought in them is only loud lamentations that Ru Stone and Owen Jones are ineligible and that "Hoppy" Hopkins, the new State "iron man," is the cinder burner who is taking the place of Stone—but there has never been a word mentioned that Steve Ebert is successfully taking the position of Jones on the track team.

Ebert, one of the less publicized men on the team, has appeared in a State suit for the last three years, and now is completing his career here at State. That he is worthy of more publicity than he has received is shown by the fact that he has taken at least one first place in every meet this season. His events are the shotput and discus throw.

GRADUATE OF COMMERCE

Ebert started his career as a track man in his second year at Commerce High here in San Francisco, where he began tossing the shotput around. When he was a senior there he took a second place in the All-City meet of the A. A. A. He graduated from Commerce and came to State, to take a general junior high course, along with continuing his career with the weights. He is due to be graduated from here at the end of this year.

Along with the other members of the team, Ebert has noticed the almost complete emptiness of Kezar Stadium on track meet days. It is his belief that one of the reasons that State has not turned out more winning teams than it has is due to the small attendance at the games and meets, which always discourages the new members of the teams, and they don't give their best until they have become hardened to the lack of school spirit which is prevalent at State. Sometimes the new tracksters, disgusted after one season of performing before an almost negligible attendance, refuse to come out for another season and perform for too little publicity and before empty stands.

Block "S" Society Presents Booker, Apostoli

Bringing talent from S. F. J. C. and San Mateo J. C., with exhibition matches furnished by Poly Hi. and Marina Jr. Hi., the Block "S" Wrestling and Boxing Show, to be held April 22, is rapidly taking shape.

Under the executive leadership of George Bogdanoff, president of the Block "S" Society, the show promises to exceed those of the past, and it is the hopes of the Block "S" that the students support it fully. George Paiva, trainer and coach of State's potential fisticuffers and matmen, has to date signed up the following men: Ernie DeLucchi, Bill Ferem, Bill Plutte, Bill Ryan, Bob Chandler, Ken Johnson, Maurio Machi, Bob Kelnhofer, Jim Martin, Joe DePhillips, Johnny Pichotto, Maury Schwarz and Tom Thorpe. Other entrants in the Sportnite will be announced later.

One of the features of the evening will be an exhibition by Earl Booker, State's "Brown Bomber," unless managerial difficulties arise. If they do come up, Booker will referee a few bouts. Arrangements are being made to have a few celebrities in attendance for refereeing purposes. Fred Apostoli's brother is one who is being contacted, as are various other personages in the fight game and sport world.

Down In Front

By ED. SMITH

With spring football season opening today, it comes to me that something very radical must be done about next football season. Slowly but surely this school has been coming into prominence in the way of sports, but it seems that we have been lacking in real talent in the realm of football. Now, we cannot garner material if this school and its activities are kept secret from the public. And you as students and supporters of our athletic teams can overcome this by publicizing the school's activities even just by mouth to mouth.

It is very possible that we can get one of the major oil companies to give us a break by broadcastng our night games over one of the many stations here in San Francisco. If they will, the company will benefit by it in advertising their products, and we will benefit by it in increased enrollment, better teams, and a closer relationship between our school and the general public.

Right along with broadcasting our games, we can publicize them on our cars with tire covers having "Go With The Gaters," and have the season schedule underneath this. This can be done by getting the co-operation of a major tire concern here in San Francisco. Say the tire covers cost seventy-five cents, the student body could pay twenty-five cents, the concern pay twenty-five cents, and the students who purchased them could pay the remaining twenty-five cents. Now, this will benefit the student by covering his spare tire, the school by the publicity, and the concern by the publicity. And everybody will be happy.

Some of you will naturally scoff and frown at these propositions, but if you want better teams and a better understanding all around with the school and public, this must be done. It may take years, and it may take months, but it can be done. All that is needed is the full and complete co-operation of the students, the school paper, the faculty, and the publicity bureau. Santa Barbara State, San Diego State, San Jose State have done all this. And they are ahead of us.

Work must be started immediately, and continue all during the summer months and even into the fall by mouth to mouth, hand to hand, ear to ear. More passes can be handed out for the games to the business men of the city. The public must be nursed into coming. We cannot take the attitude that if you don't want to come, you don't have to. We must get them. By giving the public a spectacle . . . have a good band dressed niftily, card stunts, and the like, we can draw them into the so-called net. Now I've spoken my piece, and the rest is up to you. Come on, gang, give it to them!

MORMONISM IS ILLEGAL, BUT BUYING A FRANCISCAN IS'NT.

GATERETTE GOSSIP . .

By FRAN

Wahoo! Are you going to smoke the pipe of peace with us Saturday, April 24? Tribes from San Mateo J. C., San Jose State College and San Francisco State are going to have a pow-wow here from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. . . . All squaws are welcome to participate in the war dances. . . . The campus is really going to be turned into an Indian camp with feathers, tepee, blankets, pipes of peace, chiefs, squaws and perhaps even a papoose hanging from our palm tree! . . . Don't miss it! . . . It is only held at State every three years.

They almost ran us ragged the other night at the Fair. Sure had a hard time keeping up with the steady pour of customers. Wonder how the baseball team wins so many games when its pitcher, Ru Stone, can't even knock five pegs down with three throws? . . . He certainly was razzed when he tried several times and didn't succeed. . . . George Mirande and "Red" Thompson must have spent a whole week's wages at our booth trying to knock the elusive pins over. . . . Both were pretty bad—better hide yourselves and practice, boys! . . . The crocheted bathtub goes to little Ronnie English, who strutted up, took one throw and wham! all pegs dropped. . . . He wasn't fooling, either. . . . We know why he was so good—his little inspiration was standing right by his side. . . . (sigh) . . . The girls really had it all over the boys when it came to knocking the pegs on their ear . . . Girls always were good at knocking, anyhow!

If you see any girls looking droopy-eyed around school today you'll know they went on the week-end trip to Point Reyes with the W. A. A. While we were there we learned a lot of secrets. . . . We'll tell you all about it next time (meow!) Don't go 'way now.

* * *

The mixed doubles badminton tourney is now under way. . . . Why don't you come over to the gym some time, any time, and root or your favorite couple. . . . It would be a good idea to brush up a bit on your ping pong, too, 'cause we're going to start that tourney right soon. . . . Hustle your bones over to the gym.

Gaters Register Fifteenth Win Beating Menlo J. C. Nine, 8 to 6

Sweep Oak Series by Taking Second Contest; Schutz, Bogdanoff Hurl

By Bill Rose

In a seven inning contest in which walks were cheap and runs cheaper, the Purple Gater nine out-scored the Menlo Oaks at Roberts Field, Friday, winning 8 to 6. It was the second victory for the Staters over the junior college team and gave them a clean sweep in the annual series.

Despite a sprained index finger on his pitching hand, Dave Schutz, pitching manager of the Harden outfit, took up the hurling chores for the Gaters. Schutz started off in good form, getting through the first two frames with only one hit off him. In the third, Schutz got the first man, Merickel, on a pop-up, but on the next play George Wormell, playing first base, let Wood's throw get past him, giving Johnson a life on first.

Bogdanoff Relieves

This play proved the beginning of the end for Schutz. He walked three and allowed two hits, one a home run by Bob Johnson with the bases loaded. At this point Bogdanoff relieved him. The inning had netted the visitors six tallies on only three hits.

The Purple and Gold sluggers began to ring the bell as early as the opening frame when they put over three runs on three hits and a pass. Wilkes started off with a walk and was immediately scored on "Spider" Turner's long double to left. Bill Abbey collected a single, sending Turner to third. After Hal Wood had fanned, Pat Bowers sent both men acros the plate with a long single to left.

Gaters Bat Around

The Gaters went to work in earnest in the next time at bat. John Kulis, Menlo pitcher, opened up for business by walking Gavron, Wormell, and Schutz in order. However, Gavron was thrown out trying to steal second, so there were only two on when Wilkes singled to fill the bags. Here Turner got his second hit of the game to score Wormell and Schultz, Wilkes coming in on a wild throw from the outfield.

Contest Tightens Up

After the Jaysee had scored their runs in the next frame, the third, the game tightened up and no more scoring was done by either team. In fact there was only one hit garnered after this inning. Jack Welch, Menlo third baseman, drove out a single in the seventh and last inning, but it availed his team of nothing.

Hits were rather scarce although runs were plentiful. State only managed six bingles off of Johnny Kulis, and the peninsula squad collected a mere three from Schutz and but two

CLUB ACTIVITIES

BIB 'N' TUCKER

Yesterday Bib 'n' Tucker members were entertained at the Mill Valley home of Virginia Stolte. The occasion was a Barbecue Supper.

Preceding the supper, the club members hiked to Muir Woods and had a picnic lunch.

TAG DAY DANCE

"'Twas a great success," stated Chairman Bill Ferem, when interviewed concerning the annual Tag Day Dance held Friday evening in the Women's Gym. The dance was sponsored by the Men's Club and proceeds go towards the maintenance of Roberts Field. Each person was admitted by turning in his tag which he had purchased on the campus previous to the dance, and giving an additional ten cents. Joe Rosen's Rhythm Kings provided the music.

ADVISORY COUNCIL SWIM

On Tuesday, April 20, 1937, the Advisory Council and the friends of its members are going swimming at the Fairmont Plunge. If you are interested, sign up in the Co-op on the poster. The members of the Advisory Council assure everyone attending a very good time. The swim will be from 4:00 until 6:00. "If you like to swim, come on out on Tuesday and join in the fun—the more, the merrier," was Dawn Wilson's words of encouragement for a large attendance. "Come on, gang, let's make this a great swim and lots'a fun!"

Lidlifter

Dear Lidlifter:

There are many people in the student body that are of the opinion that there is very little manhood among we musicians from the lower annex. They are sure, in fact, that we would not know which was the business end of a baseball bat.

I am sure there is enough material in the Music Federation to turn out a team that can lick the best team in the intermural contest. I wish to challenge the winner of the noon contests to play us a game. If I can't find a team strong enough I'll invite the Music Faculty out and we'll make a big fight of it.

LEON MINEAR.

State Stickers

By TOM THORPE

With the flowers singing gaily, the birds blooming and the cool summer trees floating leisurely through the balmy air, one's thoughts turn to vacations. Naturally, when one thinks of a vacation one must think of cars. Don't go 'way, I'm not going to try to sell you an automobile . . . speaking of cars . . . listen to me:

Why don't all you motorists, and even you people that don't drive but will be driving from the right hand side of the front seat or the back, take a stroll down to the Co-op and purchase a San Francisco State College sticker and PUT IT ON YOUR CAR!

It will not only show that you are a real supporter of your school, but it is also good advertising for the College.

Don't worry about your vacation money, the stickers are 2 for 5c.

Wow!
...says Al Schacht
...the Clown Prince of Baseball whoops it up for the grand opening of the 1937 baseball season.

for big league pleasure...
Chesterfield Wins

"Come on" the bleachers roar..."Swat 'em out!"

As the big leaguers swing into action watch those Chesterfield packages pop out of the pockets.

There's big league pleasure for you... everything you want in a cigarette.

A homer if there ever was one...all the way 'round the circuit for mildness and better taste...with an aroma and flavor that connects every time.
